Award Winning Magic & Mind Reading For Weddings

Hello, I'm RUA

The Wedding Magician & Mentalist

ABOUT ME ►►

I do impossible things.

18 years of insane magic tricks. Over 1,000 Weddings. Impossible mind reading. Eye-popping sleight of hand. Psychological control of your choices. Illusion Consultant. Exposés on Psychics & keynote talks on the history of magic. Twelve Live TV appearances, one TV series and two Fringe Shows. Once spent 3 hours inside a shark tank and escaped from the trunk of a car, locked inside an industrial car crusher on TV.

Mission Statement

Let's be real.

You've already poured your heart, time, and savings into planning a wedding that will be beautiful, meaningful, and truly yours.

But there's one thing almost every couple quietly worries about...

Will people be bored? Will they chat? Laugh?...Flirt?

They've been to a few weddings this year already. How can we elevate yours and make it the one that everybody wishes they were invited to?

That's where I come in.

My job is to break the ice, lift the energy, and spark those unforgettable moments that bring the whole room together with laughter, surprise, connection, and magic that's talked about for years (yes, seriously).

You've thought of everything. Let's make it feel as magical as it looks.

I'm on your team now, and my motto is F*ck Boring. Let's give them an epic wedding they'll never forget!

A man with short brown hair, wearing a dark blue checkered blazer over a dark shirt, is sitting and smiling broadly. He has his hands clasped in front of him. Behind him is a set with a large sign that reads "THE LATE LATE SHOW" in yellow, illuminated letters. The background also features a brick wall and some vertical wooden slats.

THE LATE LATE SHOW

“Absolutely Incredible.
I think he’s truly amazing.”

THE MAGICIAN

Meet

With 18 years of experience and over 1,000 performances, Rua is Ireland's most in-demand magician and mentalist for high-stakes events where "forgettable" isn't an option.

He's headlined sold-out theatre shows, fronted a 10-part TV series, appears regularly on national television, and consults on illusion experiences seen by hundreds of thousands around the world.

As Lead Consultant, he helped shape the creative vision for Dublin's World of Illusion Museum, and delivers keynote talks on the neuroscience of magic, the secret life of Houdini, and the psychological techniques used by fake psychics to convince people they're speaking to the dead.

Rua creates the moments of pure "WTF?" wonder that people rave about long after the lights come up – the stories that become legend in the office the next day, the kind nobody believes unless they saw it themselves.

As Irish Theatre Magazine put it: "Rua is a master of live deception."

The rest? You'll have to see for yourself.

THE BIG DEAL

"We're speechless!
How did you do that?
You are undeniably great.
Like some kind of rockstar magician.
Incredible!"

Close Up

Forget top hats and rabbits. Rua blends psychology, sleight-of-hand, and impossibly accurate mind reading — all within inches of your guests' eyes. This is 'Close Up Magic'.

It's not just entertainment. It's tension. Surprise. That sharp inhale before the stunned laughter.

The kind of moment that makes someone grab their friend and say, "You have to see this."

No TikTok edits. No fancy cuts. No stooges in the crowd. Just a lifetime dedicated to the craft of live deception on other humans, and a speciality for Weddings.

You may have already seen him do it on live TV.

Now it's happening right before your eyes, in your hands and in your mind.

Don't blink, or you'll miss it.

Hiring a Magician?

When?

Those moments between the big moments – when your guests laugh, connect, and say “how did he do that?” That’s where the magic lives. You’ll likely be gone for most of the reception, leaving Rua to mix and mingle with everybody to get them warmed up for your big arrival.

Who?

The childhood friend. The awkward uncle. The partner who doesn’t know anyone. Grannies and grandads, and the loved ones who are there in spirit. I make sure everyone feels part of the day, even the kids!

Why?

Because every guest matters. Because connection matters. Because this is more than a schedule – it’s a story they’ll tell for years. “The wedding was beautiful, but, do you remember that incredible Magician!?”

Where?

From five-star hotels to countryside gardens across Leinster – if there’s room for a pint and a conversation, there’s room for magic.

No stage. No spotlight. Just the right moment, the right people, at the right time.

Unbelievable. How?
You're slick, modern, talented,
and you've got what it takes.
That's four yes's from us!

Britain's Got Talent Judges

Trusted by the biggest brands you know

Planning an event comes with pressure. High end clients need talent that shows up on time, reads the room, and delivers — no ego, no drama, no doubt. Just like them, you have enough on your plate as it is, and you should enjoy the wedding day, stress-free.

That's why Rua is the first call for clients who can't afford to get it wrong.

With nearly two decades of experience and a reputation built on consistency, precision, and professionalism, Rua doesn't just perform — he makes you look good for booking him, and takes the weight of expectation off your shoulders.

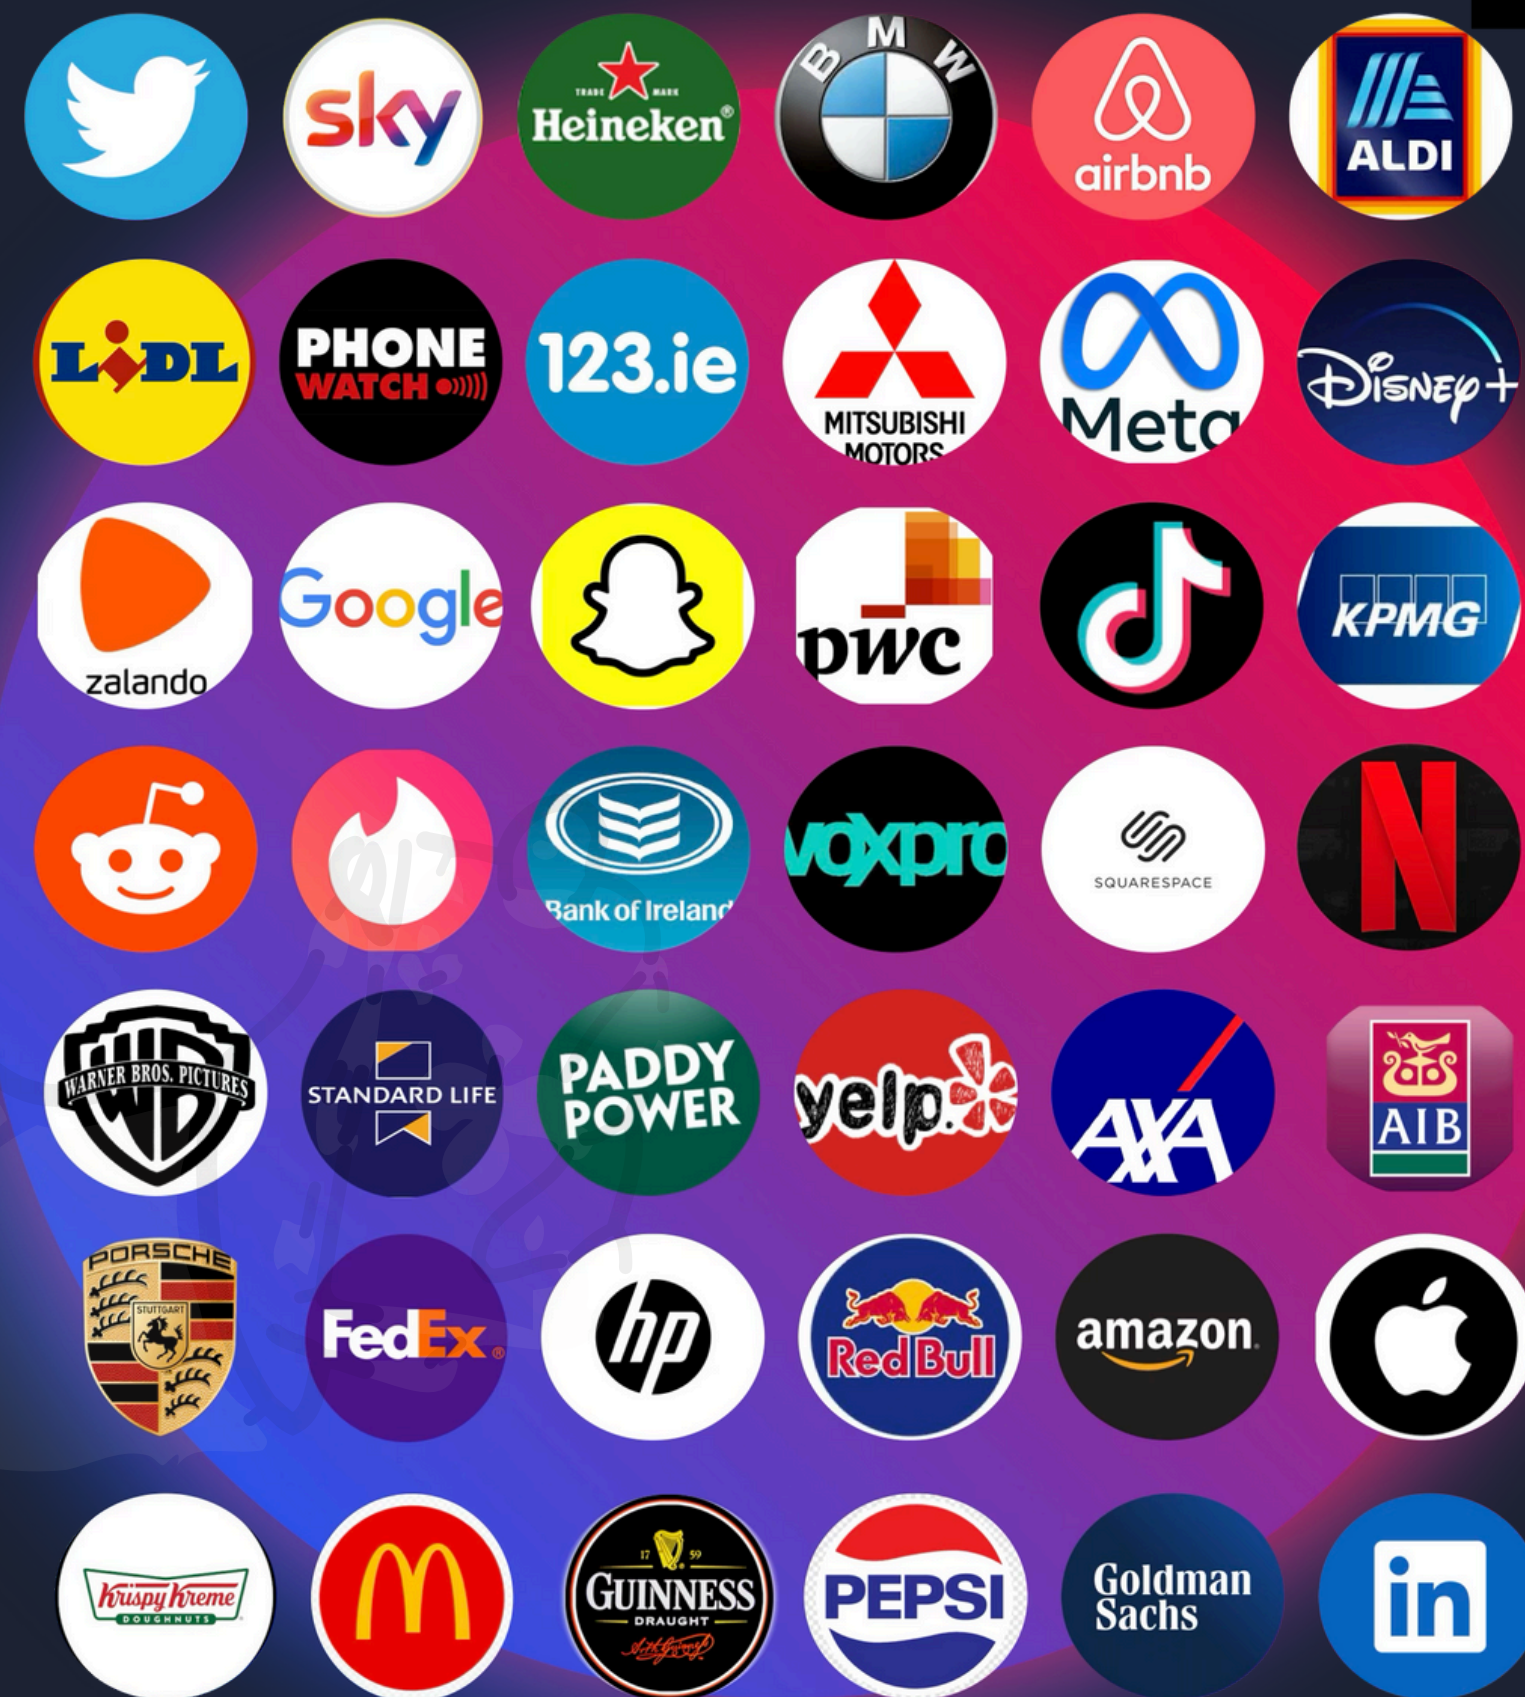

If you're looking for someone reliable, experienced, and unforgettable — you've just found him.
